

press clippings

publication - the sun,
the daily telegraph

date - 13th may 2008

for more information about water babies please contact head office on:
tel 01404 548 348 email info@waterbabies.co.uk

Stroke of luck, tot

A GIRL of two survived falling into her family's swimming pool – because she started learning strokes at eight weeks.

Elizabeth Jelley spent several minutes in the 4ft-deep pool before frantic mum Amanda found her.

She had righted herself, swum to the edge and held on – techniques taught at a Water Babies class she attends.

Amanda, 38, of Noctorum, Merseyside, said: "She wasn't panicking."

The Daily Telegraph

Water baby

Two-year-old Elizabeth Jelley emerged unscathed from a fall into the family swimming pool at Noctorum, Wirral, because she started learning to swim when she eight weeks old, her mother, Amanda, said.